The universe is infinitely vast,
Causing confusion throughout the mast.
What lurks beyond?
No one quite knows.
For most, it's their greatest fear.
But some may enjoy eternal bliss.
Just think a minute,
Lizard kings may rule the bounds of reality,
Advanced beings able to control all.
There is no edge to reality,
Just endless possibilities.
Universal mind is but our destiny.

BRIDGET S. BURGESS

TO MOM AND DAD:

I'm so proud to be your daughter. I don't know if you realize how much I admire you, but I do. You are a wonderful role model for me, not just in the way you raised me, but in the way you live every facet of your own life. I've learned so much from you, what it means to be truly giving and caring, how important it is to be fair, and understanding of others, how to believe in myself and be the best that I can be. Your example has shaped the way I think and feel and believe more than you will ever know and I just wanted to thank you with all my heart.

A special thanks to all my family because without them I wouldn't be where I am today. Our closeness through some of the roughest times in our lives has showed how much we all love one another.

Don't walk in front of me
I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me
I may not lead.
Just walk beside me
And be my friend.

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to breakdown, and a time to build up.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.

A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

STEVEN W. HOGAN

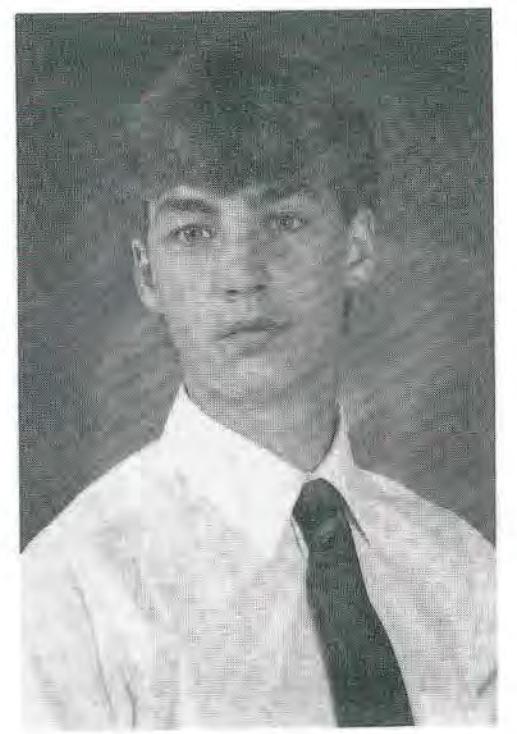

I'd like to dedicate the first verse of "That's What Friends Are For" to all of my friends who are always there for me:

"And I...never thought I'd feel this way, and as far as I'm concerned, I'm glad I've got the chance to say that I do believe I love you, and if I should ever go away, well then close your eyes and try to feel the way we do today. Well then if you can't remember...keep smiling, keep shining, knowing you can always count on me for sure. That's what friends are for, for good times and bad times, I'll be on your side for ever more.
That's what friends are for."

Also I'd like to thank Randy, Chub, Dave and Joe for being the best of friends to me that they have been. If it weren't for them, I wouldn't be where I am today. They encouraged me to stay in school and graduate. They kept me in line when I got out of control. I just want them to know that they really mean a lot to me for helping me go through the things that I had to go through. I couldn't have made it without them!

Thanks guys, and remember,
I'll always be there for you!
Love Always,
Melissa

How Did You Die?

EDMUND VANCE COOKE
(Born June 5, 1866;
died December 18, 1932)

Did you tackle that trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheerful?
Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,
But only how did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face.
It's nothing against you to fall down flat,
But to lie there—that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce;
Be proud of your blackened eye!
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts;
It's how did you fight and why?

And though you be done to death, what then?
If you battled the best you could;
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the Critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce,
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts,
But only, how did you die?

Trip to Paradise

Reunion of 2003

It is now the year 2003. The class of 1993 will be attending their 10 year reunion in a tropical paradise provided by Steve Hogan. This was made possible when he mysteriously ran into a Swiss bank account. He is now living on an uncharted island in the Pacific. He will be sending his private jet to pick up his former classmates. However, Eddie Sung, who now owns a large chain of restaurants, was flown over earlier in the week to catch and prepare us a delicious dinner.

First to arrive at the airport is Susann McCullough. After much success with photography in her old yearbook class, she decided to stick with it for a while and therefore, she is setting up her camera equipment to take candids of this evening's event. Shannon Johnson arrives next. His parole officer made sure that he was on time, even though it meant forfeiting his daily visit to the pre-school playground. And we all know how much he hates to give that up! Next, we see David Belock pulling in with his floral truck. He now owns his very own greenhouse and is supplying the centerpieces for this evening's dinner.

David Werbinski is next to arrive, broom in hand. His nickname is Dirt and his profession as well. He is now the janitor at M. S. J. and just can't seem to put his work down. As Anita Brown pulls in she flashes her new gold and diamond trimmed wallet. She bought out a local company with the money she won in the Megabucks!

Now Jonathan Bishop arrives showing a sneak preview of what will appear in the July issue of his very own leading male magazine - "Homer's Heaven". After planning this special edition since his high school years, it is finally done and will be published... "The Cheerleaders"

Just as the jet is about to land, we see Brian Tarbell pulling in on his brand new John Deere. As he jumps down from his tractor, we all see that he is well dressed for the occasion, sporting a pink tuxedo. Obviously his taste in color hasn't changed.

The plane arrives with word that Bridget Burgess and Melissa Czarnecki cannot make the reunion. After many months of begging from her former classmates, Bridget finally realized that it was time to get the doughnuts! Melissa, still after Jody's job at West Rutland, has to get a good night's sleep because for the first time in years- Jody called in sick and Missy can't pass up an opportunity like that!

As we board the plane, we turn to see Jolene Pratt. She owns her own granola factory and is supplying snacks for the plane ride. Krissy Baker arrives next followed by a mob of fans. She writes, directs, and produces her own talk show appropriately named, "Krissy's Way". Then all of a sudden we hear an extremely loud noise and from around the corner the "Beave" appears (amazingly still running after all these years).

Oakley Allen gets out with his tool box. He carries it with him just to make sure he can keep his car running.

Paul Carlson is next to arrive. As he was boarding the plane, we overheard him telling the pilot that he had to leave early so he could be on time to pick up his little Pasqually. Richard Cyr now pulls in wearing an exquisite plaid flannel shirt. He runs up to get on the plane yelling "Get downstairs! It's not five of yet and you're not supposed to be up here yet!" After being appointed hall monitor his senior year, he found that he liked the feel of power so West Rutland gave him a full time job.

When Amy Sinos showed up, she found Nate Mylott kneeling before the plane entrance to pray for a safe trip. He now runs "Heaven's Gym" where his main concern is pumping up the word of God (and a muscle here and there)!

Amy was all out of breath but still managed to tell Nate how she got into her split ends on the bus and then she missed her stop so she had to "run" back so she wouldn't miss the plane.

Alain Therrien is the last to board the plane. He has been here for awhile, but he was on the look out for anyone who might be crashing the party.

Finally, everyone that could make this wonderful event has boarded the plane and we fly to Steve's island, feast on a wonderful dinner, and the Class of 1993 ten year reunion is a success. Now, we all travel back to our different paths of life with memories renewed from our youth.

"BACK TO THE FUTURE"

Junior Class Survey Reveals Their Feelings About The Past, Present, And The Future

JULI-JO JAKUBIAK. "My opinion of the past years of high school is that the time goes by fast. I expect to make the best of my future, no matter how hard it may seem."

JOHN NIEMEYER. "I didn't like my past years. The classes were very boring. In the future I expect my classes to continue being boring."

CARRIE LEHMAN. "I had a lot of fun in the past few years of high school. I would like to go to some kind of college and become a teacher of some kind."

WENDY STEWART. "My past years have been O.K., but there has been too much homework. In my future I want to go to college and get a good job. Hopefully I'll still be with Tim."

STEVE SALENGO. "I feel that the past few years were O.K., because I found a way to deal with problems that come up. I hope that in the future I can be more prepared for what's ahead."

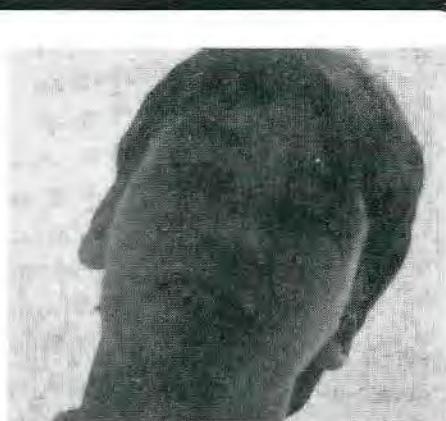

MARIANNE GOODRICH. "The past years of high school for me have been challenging. They have taught me to become more responsible for my actions. I hope for the year I have left in high school, it will become more challenging."

MIKE BILLS. "My past high school experience has been pretty good. Nothing special has happened, but I've learned a lot, like never to talk back to Mr. Remington. After high school I would like to go to college so I can get a good job and be someone besides a garbage picker."

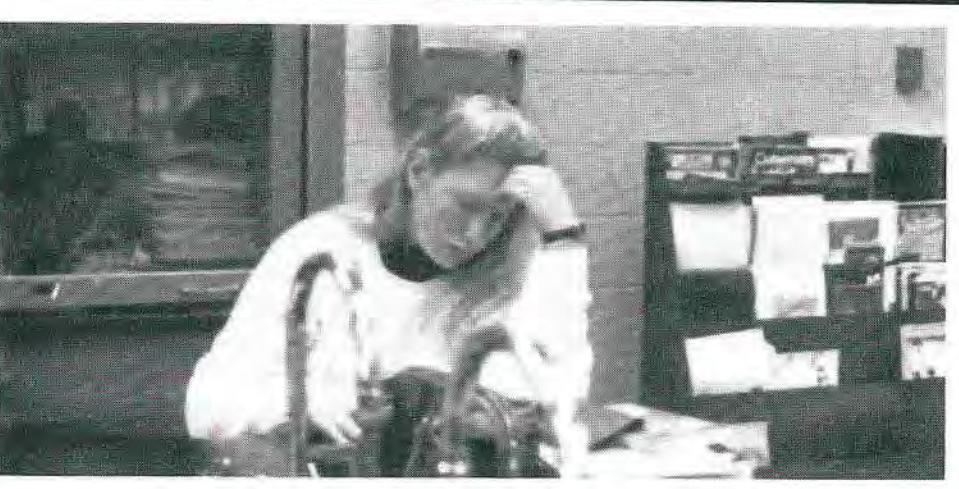

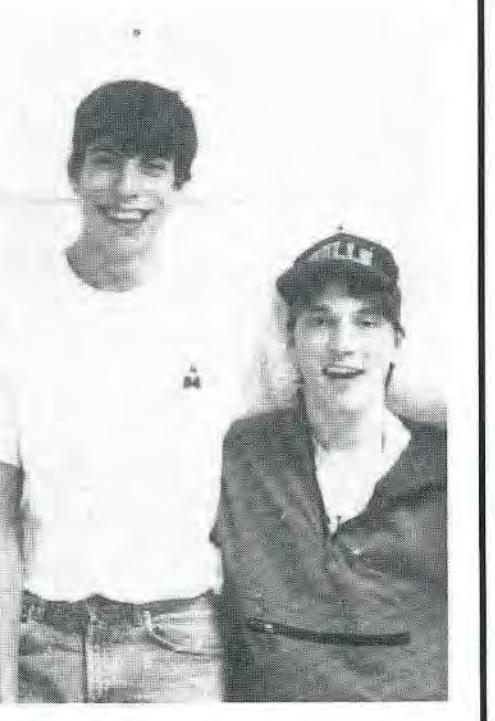

TRACY SWAN. "The past years of high school have been different. But the future years are more exciting as I get closer to graduation."

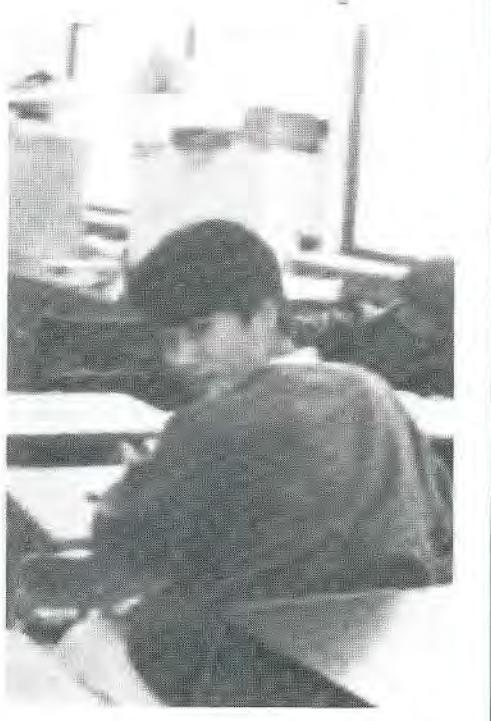

TOM FOWLER. "These last years have been easy and quick. I hope to go on and further my education and become a sports trainer."

CLASS ACT

THE SOPHOMORES

NATHAN HEWITT. "It's better than being a freshman."

BONNIE BURGESS. "It's fun because now we are not the youngest. It is our turn to pick on the younger ones."

SCOTT LEHMAN. "When this year is over there are only two more to go."

PAT LOUGHAN. "Our class has three years left to improve academically and athletically."

JASON SKAZA. "It's better than being a freshman, but I would rather be a senior."

ANDREW LARUE. "It's better than being a freshman, but it's harder in a lot of ways."

BETHANY MCDONALD. "Well, technically, I have the intellectual equivalence of a senior, but seeing as I physically I am a sophomore; I'd have to say, I like it a lot better, mainly because I've grown an inch and a half."

MELISSA WOZNIAK. "I presently stand unaffected by my academic standpoint. (Whatever that means)

CHRISTINE JOHNSON. "Being a sophomore is undecided because we're too old for somethings and too young for others."

WESTSIDE'S FUTURE

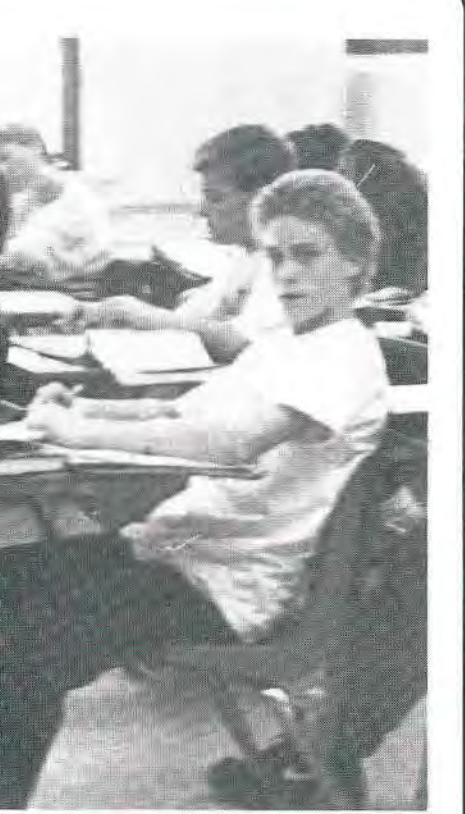

PAULA SMITH. "I feel proud that we are the future, and that we have the responsibility to keep the Westside spirit alive."

AMY NARTOWICZ. "I feel being Westside's future is very important because a lot is depended upon our class."

JOE STEVENS. "Soon the future will be the present and our class will accept responsibility to make Westside exciting."

JODY LOOMIS IS CONFIDENT IN SAYING: "Our class has the potential for being the future."

VAN ALLEN. "I want our class to be remembered as the class that changed the old traditions, so being the future makes it all possible."

B. J. DYDO. "The future will be great because West Rutland is a great place to be."

TIFFANY SMITH. "Graduating is my biggest goal in life, and when I leave I will always have wonderful memories of West Rutland High School."

STACEY HOGAN. "Being the future, we will be treated with respect and not be treated as freshmen."

SHERYLL THORNTON. "I feel our class will excel over the years and be remembered in Westside's history."

Good Humor and a Friendly Smile

"Thank You Ms. Garvey"

No one realizes the difficulties of being a secretary at a high school. During a school year you have to wear many hats, sometimes several at the same time which could cause confusion.

Each year the senior class loads Ms. Garvey up with work such as typing up all the letters of recommendation, making additions to transcripts, and helping type student essays. She performs all these tasks with good humor and a friendly smile. We don't know what we would ever do without Ms. Garvey and we would like to thank her for all the time and energy she expends on our behalf.

Young But Talented Squad

Our Cheerleaders Ignited The Crowd With Talent

WATCH OUT! BEWARE! Sherrill Thornton, one of the squads freshmen was a huge contributor with her exuberance and talent.

FIGHT! The crowd is involved with this cheer as Beth Glodzik holds up a sign. Our crowd was the best ever at cheering competitions.

THANK YOU!! Our girls again come out strong with an excellent ending to their crowd winning routine.

OOGA BOOGA! The girls performed on the floor with huge smiles and great enthusiasm. It is fun to watch our cheerleaders explode with such liveliness.

YELL IT! The girls put on one of their pep rallies to get the crowd more involved and fired up.

GOOD LUCK! Before each game our cheerleaders wish the opponents "Good Luck". Good sportsmanship is a very important part of cheering.

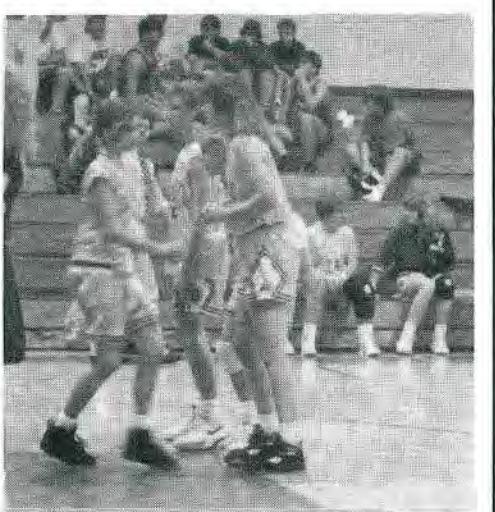

SILENCE. A moment of quiet before the big game. This is the only time you'll see true seriousness on the cheerleader's faces.

West Rutland Girls Stun M. S. J.

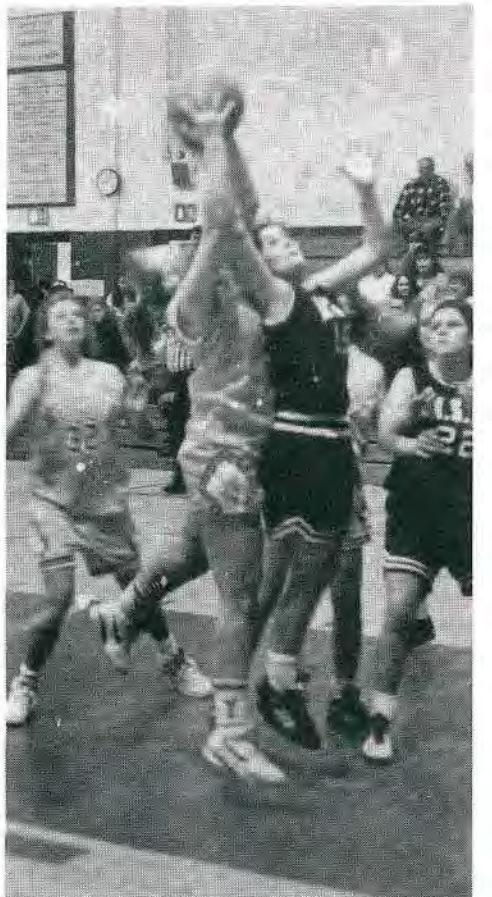

Girls Got Off To A Quick Start And Never Looked Back

EXECUTE. Kelly, Marianne, Lindsay, and Anita set up to complete an inbound play.

STRATEGY. Coach Lanphere instructs the team during a time out. "Come on girls, lets reverse the ball."

BATTLE UNDERNEATH. Carrie Lehman has this rebound in hand.

UNSTOPABLE. Marianne Goodrich makes her fourth 3 pointer while scoring 20 points in the win against M.S.J. Marianne was selected to the CVGAL All-Star Team. She also led the team in assists and shooting percentage.

SENIOR POWER. Anita Brown was the team's leading rebounder. She contributed much on both offense and defense for the team and had a memorable career at West Rutland.

HEADS-UP. With all eyes on the rebound everyone waits for the ball to come down.

L. WING J. V. TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

J. V. Team Finishes A 11-11 Season On A 12-2 Tear

SHINING THROUGH. A young J. V. team struggled through the first half of the season but outstanding play from such team members as Van Allen, Jason Skaza, Mike Hewitt and Robbie Bidgood helped to turn the season around.

POINT GUARD. Van Allen's outstanding play earned him a spot on the L. Wing All Tournament Team.

NOT BY ME, YOUR NOT! Josh Pietryka was a starting guard and in this picture we find him guarding against the inbound pass.

SHALL I THROW IT TO YOU? Jason Bathalon inbounded the ball to a waiting Chris DeLong.

BIG HELP. John Nartowicz helped out on the inside both as a rebounder and as a scorer. His improvement helped turn around the season.

A Bunch Of Busy Bees

TALENTED ARTISTS. Val Trepanian and Krissy Baker working on their page layouts.

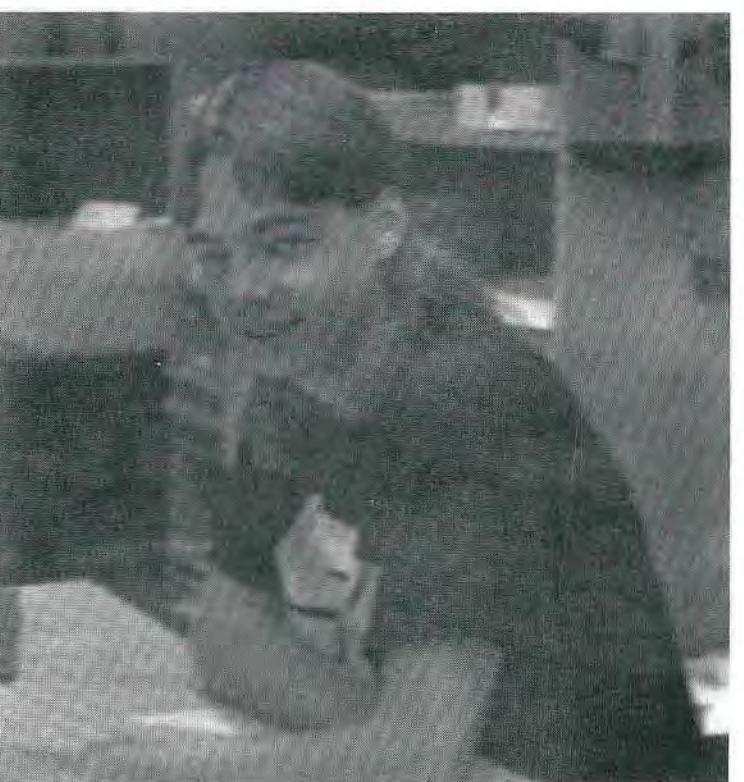

OH! THERE MUST BE A GOOD ONE HERE SOMEWHERE. Marianne Goodrich is looking for a good picture of herself.

OOPS! Becky Rogers coloring in her Little Mermaid book (not really) when she should be working on the yearbook!

DOUBLE OOPS! As Always, Jon Bishop has been caught wasting film!

SWEATING IT OUT! Paul Carlson working on his yearbook assignment.

HMM. Mr. Simon thinking up a great idea for our yearbook.

"The Excitement Never Ends"

Student Life

JUNIORS. The Junior's Performance of "Heal The World" came in second place in the talent competition.

Sophomores Win Winter Carnival

Sophomores Stun Other Grades As Juniors Finish Second, Seniors Finish Third, And The Freshmen Come In Last

URP, GURGLE. Clayton Hickory came in first place for the Sophomores in the Jello eating contest.

"45". The seniors and the juniors tied for first place in the "45" tournament.

SENIOR POWER. The seniors came in second place in this event with only four people.

COULD IT REALLY BE SLASH? Beth McDonald played Slash for the sophomores in the talent show.

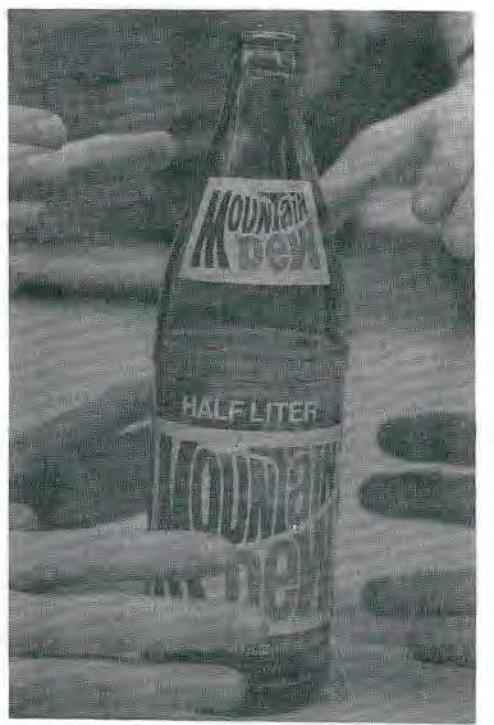

TEQUILA! After each song Pat Loughan came running out on stage and shouted "tequila!"

"LET ME AT 'EM!" No matter how hard the seniors tried they still came in only third place in the floor hockey.

Every day...

thousands of pilots and commercial airline passengers around the world depend on our employees and their attention to quality in the aircraft engines they work to produce. It's the people who work at Rutland's GE who keep us on top. We're meeting and beating the competition because at GE Aircraft Engines today's challenge is tomorrow's achievement.
